b. Campaign Contribution Fundraising.

1. It is the intent of this Code to promote the full and complete transparency of campaign contributions received by Elected Officials, consistent with the disclosure requirements provided by state statute.
2. Any campaign finance disclosure that an Elected Official must submit to the Supervisor of Elections, or to the appropriate municipal election official, in accordance with the provisions of Florida Statutes Chapter 106 shall, contemporaneously, be filed for public inspection.
3. Elected Officials who solicit campaign contributions for other candidates for public office shall disclose, on a form created by the Broward County Attorney's Office, the name of the candidate for whom they are soliciting, the location and date of any associated event, and both the name and contribution amounts of any individual who provided contributions, directly or indirectly, to the Elected Official for subsequent delivery to the candidate. The form shall be filed for public inspection.
4. An Elected Official may not use any staff or other resources of his or her governmental entity in the solicitation or receipt of campaign contributions.
5. Campaign or political contributions may not be made, solicited, or accepted in any government-owned building.
